The Inspector General of Registration in reply
C 212/40 41 dated 20th October 194.
regarding the period for which records have to be kept

The I.G.of Registration wants orders as to the length of time for which applications for registration etc., have to be preserved.

There is no rule on this point in the Moneylenders Rules.

The I.G. suggests that all papers relating to registration may be preserved for 12 years and the Register of Moneylenders for a period of 30 years.

The I.G.'s suggestion may perhaps be approved.
